Bravida's CFO to leave his position

Bravida's Chief Financial Officer Nils-Johan Andersson has announced that he has decided to leave his position. The reason behind the decision is that he will move to the United Kingdom. Nils-Johan Andersson will remain in his current role during his notice period, and Bravida has initiated the process of finding a new CFO.

– Bravida is a great company and I am very proud of what we have accomplished over the past years. To leave the organisation has been a tough decision, but it is now time for the next chapter. I will continue to follow Bravida's progress from the outside, and I am confident that it has every condition to continue delivering profitable growth, says Nils-Johan Andersson, current CFO of Bravida.

– Nils-Johan Andersson has been a key person in Bravida's progress over the past years and a very appreciated colleague. We wish him the best of luck now when he has decided to move abroad. Nils-Johan will remain in his current role until further notice, and we have initiated the process of finding a new CFO who will become part of our continued journey with focus on profitable growth, financial stability and sustainability, says Mattias Johansson, CEO of Bravida.

Nils-Johan Andersson will remain as CFO during his notice period, or until another arrangement is decided upon.
